LISTEN & LEARN:

Collaborate and be challenged by local immigrant leaders. You will learn the importance of scripture in our ministry approach and the cultural milieu in which border communities interact on a day to day basis.

SERVE:

Serve the local immigrant church and organizations in long-term efforts that are helping empower immigrant families on the South Texas border. Distribute food, build welcome packs, prepare meals, help sort donations, meet asylum seekers and hear their stories.

CONTEXTUALIZE:

Step into another culture. Break cross-cultural barriers, hear important stories and be challenged to reflect on how God wants you to use this experience.

AFTER THE TRIP:

The great commission isn't just about "going." It's about how we live once we return home. It's about our everyday actions and decisions to showcase our faith. We'll have a conversation about modeling this once you get home.

"And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined the allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him." Act 17:26-27
